

GLOBAL ALLIANCE FOR URBAN CRISES

Adapting Humanitarian Action to an Urban World Global Alliance for Urban Crises Resource Launch Event

Geneva, HNPW, Friday 8 February

9:00 – 10:30 and 11:00 – 12:30

Room 3, Centre International de Conférences Genève

The Global Alliance for Urban Crises, a multi-disciplinary and collaborative community of practice seeking to change how we respond to urban crises, invites you to the launch of its first series of technical resources.

With momentum in the past year on adapting humanitarian approaches to new contexts, the event will highlight six crucial resources supporting humanitarian and development actors, local authorities, the private sector and academia better prepare for, respond to, and recover from urban crises. The Alliance will launch these resources at two morning sessions, as detailed below.

9:00 – 10:30 Session:

- 1. Urban profiling for better responses to humanitarian crises;*
- 2. Strengthening engagement between local governments and humanitarian and development actors;*
- 3. Urban displacement from different perspective, an overview of approaches;*
- 4. Building urban resilience in the face of crisis;*

11:00 – 12:30 Session:

- 5. Urban Competency Framework for Humanitarian Action; and*
- 6. Good Practice Review, a compendium of field-tested strategies to guide humanitarian action from the Humanitarian Practice Network and ALNAP.*

Please register for the session here

For more information, please contact Samer Saliba at Samer.Saliba@rescue.org

The event and the development of these resources have been made possible by EU-Humanitarian Aid (ECHO).